(However our inbound exchange students must check out by September 5th, 2016)

or

April 1st, 2016 – March 10th, 2017

I . How to apply

1. Necessary documents

- First residence applicants; Form 1, Form A, and a copy of Student ID card or an Acceptance Letter from your faculty for the new students
- Former residence applicants; Form 1, Form A, Form B, and a copy of Student ID card or an Acceptance Letter from your faculty for new students

2. Screening Regulations

- Priority is given to the applicants who come to Japan directly from overseas.
- The applicants, who have already lived in Japan, are given priority if they are in the final academic year of their programs. Financial situations of the applicants may be considered.
- Although the applicants may have already lived in I-House for a total of one year, they can apply again when the academic status changes. However, priority will be lower than a) and b).. Please also submit "Re-Application for Residence".
- Students who are repeating a year or temporarily absent from school are not allowed to apply.

II . Room change

- Necessary document .....Form C
- A resident, who has been eligible to stay until September 2016, can submit an application for a room change. Changing to a room of the same type, however, is not allowed.

III . Result of application

Result will be announced by the end of February, 2016 to each Faculty or Graduate Office.

IV . Notice

- Since the number of rooms is limited, not all the students can get a room. Applicants cannot request to choose buildings or types of rooms.
- Even though the room type is the same, the width and the layout are different in each building. Once the room is assigned, you cannot request any changes.
- Rent and other charges are subject to change.

Thank you for your understanding.
